THE SUGAR MILL RESTAURANT

In 1912, the Santa Ana Sugar Co-Operative, founded by Mr. James Irvine, used the Embassy Suites Hotel' parcel of land to construct a sugar beet factory. Bought out by the Holly Sugar Corporation in 1918, the factory continued to operate and at one point produced one fifth of the United States' refined sugar, until 1983 when the Holly Sugar Corporation closed the factory. Soon following, in 1984, the Embassy Suites Hotel was constructed with thoughts of its predecessor in mind. In keeping with the history of the land use, we welcome you to the Sugar Mill! We hope you find our classic American and regional Orange County cuisine enjoyable; but, be sure to leave room for our special Sugar Mill desserts as they will surely satisfy your sweet spot.
